

Annual Home-Coming Booms Onto the J.J.C. Scene Tuesday

Highlighted by a gala series of events, the annual J.J.C. Home-Coming festivities will dominate activities Tuesday and Wednesday. During these two days of merrymaking, students and alumni will be treated to a pep rally, two parades, a football game, coronation of a queen and the Home-Coming dance.

Spearheaded by the inspired pep rally at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday night at Junge Stadium, the fun and revelry will cease Wednesday night following the dance.

Shirley Trim, captain of the cheerleading squad, will be in charge of the rally, with attention focused on the gigantic bonfire. The captain of the football team and candidates for Home-Coming queen will be introduced. The nine candidates for queen are Shirley Trim, Kay Francis, Judy Conboy, Jane Hillhouse, Gayle Prigg, Susan Stout, Pam Friend, Judy Kingsland, and Pam Spenny.

After the rally, a parade down

Main Street will be staged to be followed in turn by a marshmallow roast at McClelland Park, closing Tuesday night's activities.

Marching units, the Home-Coming queen candidates in convertibles, floats of Juco organizations, and gaily decorated cars will make up the parade down Main Street at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. The parade is scheduled to form at Twentieth and Main at 2 o'clock, with Terry Dixon in charge.

The Lions will play hosts to the Fort Scott Greyhounds in what is expected to be a hotly-contested grid battle, getting underway at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday night at Junge Stadium. Half-time activities will be highlighted by the elaborate crowning of the Home-Coming queen, who is chosen by the football squad. Her identity will not be revealed until the game.

The candidates will be driven onto the field in convertibles, escorted by their nominating football players. George Payne, president of the Student Senate, will emcee.

Immediately following the game the annual dance in honor of the queen, football team, and alumni, will be held in the College gym, with Dick Allison and his seven-piece band providing the music.

Plans for the two-day slate of festivities were formulated by the newly-organized Student Senate and the Alumni-Faculty committee. Miss Eula Ratekin and Dr. Maurice Litton sponsor the Senate. Kenneth Elliff is president of the Alumni Association and Miss Dorothy Stone is chairman of the faculty committee.

Actress Entertains With Solo Program

Miss Virginia Sale presented her "American" character sketches Wednesday morning.

The Illinois-born actress appears in radio, television, and motion pictures.

Mildred Dilling will Present Joplin's First Harp Recital As Second Community Concert

The first harp concert ever to be presented on a Joplin stage will be given by Mildred Dilling Wednesday evening, November 19, at the Paramount Theater. All Joplin Junior College students will be admitted on their activity tickets.

Miss Dilling's performance will be the second in a series of four scheduled by the Joplin Community Concert Association, according to Jerry Connor, president of the Concert Association.

With a world-wide reputation as a teacher, as well as a performer, Miss Dilling numbers among her pupils such famous personages as Harpo Marx. Annually she plays more than 50 concerts in the United States.

Miss Dilling has been invited to perform in the White House seven times. She tours Europe in a concert series each summer. The expert harpist played the first harp recital ever televised by the British Broadcasting Corporation and was the first harp soloist to broadcast in Ireland, the land of the harp.

Also an authority on the history and the development of the harp, Miss Dilling is believed to own the largest collection of harps in America, which she keeps in her New York studio overlooking the East River. Dubbed "The Queen of Her Domain," she owns more than 60 of the approximately 4000 harps in the United States and frequently enlivens her performances by giving demonstrations on them.

The two other concerts will be presented by the famed Robert Shaw Chorale and Orchestra and the Concerto Festival with Eugene Liszt and the Knickerbocker Players.

Thespians to Hold Halloween Party

The College Players will celebrate Halloween at 8 o'clock tonight in the Little Theatre. Those attending the affair will come clad in costumes and theatrical makeup.

President Gwen Theis says that the dramatists will present prizes for the most realistic costume, the most unusual, the most original, and the funniest. Entertainment will follow the judging of the costumes.

Jewell Frownfelter pauses outside the chicken house to display a "good" hen. The Juco freshman is unusually qualified to pass judgment, since she is Missouri's representative to the National 4-H Poultry Judging contest November 29 in Chicago. She won the trip in competition with 10 finalists in the state-wide contest October 4 at Columbia.

Sadly enough she did not learn the techniques of catching the chickens when they are unwilling to submit to criticism. That chicken reclining so placidly in Jewell's arms doesn't look capable of leading three such stalwart Juco men, Marion Ellis, Dick Baker, and Jim Robson, to victory with 10 finalists in the state-wide contest October 4 at Columbia.

Jewell has worked with poultry for four years and has served three years as a member of the club's county, and district judging on a prolonged chicken chase—but she reportedly is! Fortunately for all, the chicken tired first.

A past president of the Prairie Flower 4-H Club, Jewell is one of the four delegates from Missouri to the national contest.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Frownfelter, Joplin Route 3.

Library Opens During Assembly On Trial Basis

The library will open during assemblies. But it must be emphasized that this policy is only temporary and can be discontinued if attendance at the assemblies continues to drop or if noise in the halls detracts.

Dean Maurice Litton said extreme caution should be rendered by the students while an assembly program is in progress.

In explaining his reason for opening the library, Dean Litton said:

"First of all, our new building is in much better shape than the old one and persons may walk through the halls, without disturbing an assembly program. Secondly, a trial of this policy will prove its validity."

"The policy underwent a premature drill during the recital assembly last week. The program ran over five minutes, but was not disturbed by the noise of the students going to their classes. This is one of the principal reasons I decided to try leaving the library and cafeteria open. However, I do feel that the students are missing something important every time they miss an assembly."

The Chart representatives are looking at the world-famous "Journalist's Creed," located at Jay Neff Hall at the University of Missouri. They are Donna Engle, Marion Ellis, and Dale Allen.

The editors, along with Miss Cleetis Headlee, sponsor, attended the annual Missouri College Newspaper Association Workshop. The daytime workshop schedule included lectures by the school of journalism professors Maurice Votaw, William Peden, and Richard Cannon. The students also attended a banquet Friday night where Frank Rucker, assistant journalism dean, spoke.

Written by Walter Williams, founder of the world's first journalism school, the Creed exemplifies the high standards which better newspapers throughout the world aspire to live up to.

Public to View 'Ah, Wilderness' Nov. 20, 21, 22

The 12-member cast of "Ah, Wilderness" will enact the well-known American comedy for the first time at 8:30 o'clock Thursday night, November 20, in the Auditorium. Written by Eugene O'Neill, the play will also be presented on Friday and Saturday nights.

"Ah, Wilderness" takes the viewer far from the theatre and shows him the intimacies of an average home in an average American community. The production demonstrates that people really do become interesting when depicted by such an artist as O'Neill.

The following actors will give the November presentations: Hubert Bird will appear as Nat Miller, the father; LoVella Moore, as Essie, Miller's wife; Terry Reece, the Miller's son who attends Yale; Jim Lobbey, Richard, the Miller's son who attends high school;

Gayle Prigg as the Miller's daughter, Mildred; Janet Martin in the role of Bonnie, another of the Miller's daughters; Adrea Krummel as Nora, the maid; Terry Dixon as David McComber, Muriel's father; Glenn Meadows as Wint; Murray Lorenzen is Sid; Gwen Theis as Lily, Essie's sister; and Jane Hillhouse is Muriel McComber.

In addition to the cast, many crew members are preparing for the November 20 premiere. They include Sondra Gumm, backstage coordinator; Judy Conboy, Jane Hillhouse, Murray Lorenzen, furniture; Murray Lorenzen, set design; Terry Reece, Conrad Gubera, Mike Robbins, Richard Waldron, Alfred Long, Bob Blankenship, Murray Lorenzen, construction; Jim Lobbey, Glen Meadows, Conrad Gubera, lights; Gwen Theis, Betty Lee, Pat Van Hooser, costumes; Nancy Chadwell, Joy Johnson, Larry Meacham, Donna Finley, Marjedean Spitler, Margaret Moore, Terry Dixon, publicity;

Students Name NEA Chapter For Miss Coffey

A National Education Association chapter for future teachers has been organized and named in honor of Miss Ada Coffey for her 25 years service in the Joplin School System.

The purpose of the chapter is "To develop an understanding among college students of the teaching profession through participation in the work of local, state, and national associations."

Bob Smith was chosen president in the organizational meeting, Friday, October 17. More than 50 students attended this meeting.

Other officers of the Ada Coffey Student NEA Chapter are Bill Kilgore, vice-president, Joan Petty, secretary; and Janice Eckhart treasurer. Members of the club plan to attend as many teachers' meetings as possible. Several chapter members have made plans to go to the state teachers' meeting.

Alumna Gives Recital

Mrs. Evelyn Jones will present the assembly program November 12. Because of the popularity of her programs, she has been invited to speak at the College every year since its founding.

The speaker and her husband have recently returned from an extensive tour of Europe where they visited many interesting, out-of-the-way places.

Mrs. Jones received A.B. and B.J. degrees from the University of Missouri. The entertainer spent a week this month at Christian College where she presents reviews each year.

The Journalist's Creed

I believe in the profession of journalism.

I believe that the public journal is a public trust; that all connected with it are, to the full measure of their responsibility, trustees for the public; that acceptance of lesser service than the public service is betrayal of this trust.

I believe that clear thinking and clear statement, accuracy and fairness, are fundamental to good journalism.

I believe that a good journalist should write only what he holds in his heart to be true.

I believe that suppression of news, for any consideration other than the welfare of society, is indefensible.

I believe that no one should write as a journalist what he would not say as a gentleman; that bribery by one's own pocketbook is as much to avoid as bribery by the pocketbook of another; that individual responsibility may not be escaped by pleading another's instructions or another's dividends.

I believe that advertising, news and editorial columns should alike serve the best interests of readers; that a single standard of helpful truth and cleanliness should prevail for all; that the supreme test of good journalism is the measure of its public service.

I believe that the journalism which succeeds best—and best deserves success—fears God and honors man; is stoutly independent, unmoved by pride of opinion or greed of power, constructive, tolerant but not careless, self-controlled, patient, always respectful of its readers but always unafraid; is quickly indignant at injustice; is unswayed by the appeal of privilege or the clamor of the mob; seeks to give every man a chance, and, as far as law and honest wage and recognition of human brotherhood can make it so, an equal chance; is profoundly patriotic while sincerely promoting international good will and cementing world-comradeship; is a journalism of humanity, of and for today's world.

Know Your Senate Officers

How many Student Senate officers do you know?

Senate President George Payne gained executive experience as a high school class president. He enjoys participating in many activities and is a member of both Circle K and the Y.M.C.A. "Don't be shy," he advises. "Accept responsibility and work with other students to make Juco even better."

Mike Johnson thought the students needed a coke machine in the cafeteria. So now they have one. Not that Mike did it alone, but at least he's off to a good beginning as vice-president. Mike's interests are varied, ranging from tennis and golf to chess. His job at the Thriftway Market doesn't leave him excessive time for these activities because Mike says "Studies first."

Shirley Trim brings much experience to her position as secretary.

The brown-haired General Business major helps keep the Dean's office running smoothly. An ardent sports fan, Shirley serves as cheerleading captain. "I enjoy meeting people," she declares, "and would like to get to know all the students I possibly can."

An interest in business is an excellent recommendation for a treasurer and Max Vowels has that. Known around Juco as an athlete, Max hopes that students will approve his financial wizardry.

"Juco needs more publicity; that will be my main project," says Parliamentarian Ray Foster. Ray entered J.J.C. after serving three years in the Army. During that time he became interested in plant and animal life and now plans to major in biological science.

District Political Scene Hums With Talks by Top Speakers

Many students heard Sam Rayburn speak at the District Democratic rally held at 8 o'clock Thursday night, October 23, in Memorial Hall. The Speaker of the House of Representatives greeted a near capacity crowd as fellow "Americans" and said that both parties should put the welfare of the country before the welfare of the party.

Appearing as an endorsement of Senator Stuart Symington and Representative Charlie Brown, "Mista Sam" went on to say that "if the Democrats carried the country into socialism, the Republicans have kept it there." In a brief political reference, Rayburn stated that the Republicans preach a balanced budget and practice an unbalanced one; that they complain of inflationary debt, yet have raised the debt limit to a peace time high.

Larry Meacham, chairman of the College Young Democrats, and Murray Lorenzen, parliamentarian, attended the dinner held at the Connor Hotel in Rayburn's honor.

"A grave danger in today's government is the lack of interest on the part of the people. The Republican party relies on Young Republicans to stimulate this interest," Noel Cox told an audience of Young Republicans and Democrats October 22 in the Little Theatre.

Speaking at the meeting of the Young Republicans, the Congressional candidate asserted the major differences do exist between the two parties. Donna Engle, chairman of the Young Republicans, introduced the Republican candidate and conducted the question-answer session following Cox's talk.

Approximately 30 persons attended a symposium held October

15 in Room 308. Introduced by Nancy Chadwell, vice-chairman of the Young Republicans, Mrs. R. A. Mahoney moderated the friendly argument which was co-sponsored by the Young Democrats and Republicans.

Those attending the gathering discussed "What is mudslinging?" "Why did you join the party of your choice?" and "What are your political ideals?"

Student Musicians Give First Assembly

The College Music Department presented the first student concert of the year at the assembly hour, October 22. Under the direction of Merrill Ellis, the program consisted of several vocal and instrumental renditions.

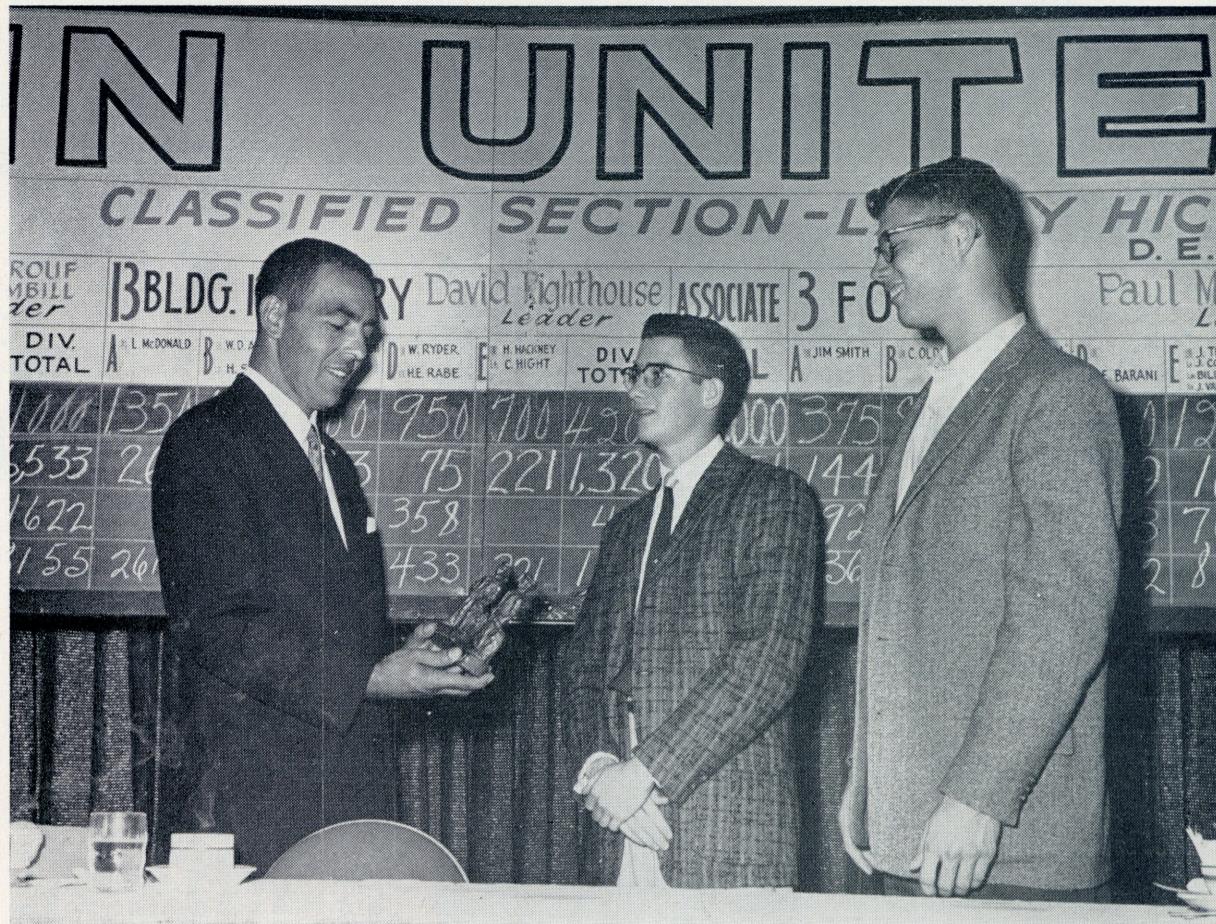

Vocal solos were sung by Hubert Bird, Dennis Spille, Susan Morris, John Schnert, Nancy Ann Smith, and Virginia Monteith. Instrumental numbers were played by Joyce Elliff, Eldridge Martin, Sallye Elliff, Jeanne Moore, Sally Wells, Larry Sanborn, Bob Perkins, and Bill Thompson. Joyce Elliff and Sallye Elliff played the piano accompaniments.

The second student recital of the season will be held at 7:30 o'clock, Tuesday night, November 18 in Room 210.

Dramatists to Watch University Production

The Thespians will journey to Fayetteville November 8 to view the University of Arkansas's presentation of "Macbeth." The students will travel in private automobiles to see the Shakespearian tragedy.

For information concerning tickets, students should contact Gwen Theis, Jim Lobbey, or Milton W. Brietzke. Gwen said that all College Players must pay their dues before they may participate in the trip.

Larry Hickey, classified section leader, presents minute men awards to Jim Robson and Hank Jones, right, for their services during the United Fund campaign. Each one showed films to ten civic groups during the drive. Other Circle K members who assisted with the community project are Dick Baker, Eldridge Martin, and Terry Dixon.

Phi Theta Kappa Issues 9 Bids

The pledges of the Eta Chi Chapter of the national arts and science fraternity for junior colleges became busily engaged in activities of the organization soon after receiving their invitations on October 1.

The girls of the scholastic fraternity are serving as ushers for the Community Concerts. All the Phi Theta Kappa members and pledges are selling bronze mums surrounded by a decorative green ribbon for Home-Coming.

An informal initiation will be held at 6 o'clock Tuesday night, November 11, at the Joplin Water Works shelter for the students who became eligible for membership at the end of the second semester last year.

They are Donna Engle, Marilyn Cline, Carol Fahrig, Gwen Theis, Donald Bartling, Dick Baker, Walter Smith, Dean Cope, and Robert Lundein.

Reading Program Fails to Materialize

The Developmental Reading Training Program scheduled to get under way October 20 was canceled due to lack of student interest. Dean Maurice Litton said that only 15 students indicated an inclination to participate in the program which required a minimum of 45.

Betas Initiate Pledges At October Meeting

The Beta Beta Betas initiated the girls accepting bids to the social sorority on October 14 in the Little Theatre. President Jeanette Veatch presided over the ceremony. At the conclusion, Secretary Mary Curtis James explained the pledge rules; and Vice-president Jane Holt and Reporter Jo Ann Rutherford presented each pledge with her ribbon.

After the regular business meeting, the pledges elected their officers: President, Judy Kelley; Vice-president, Diana Garrison; Secretary, Sylvia Conrow; Treasurer, Janice O'Donnell.

Other pledges included Jeanette Campbell, Nancy Ratrie, Roberta Rogers, Pam Friend, Sharon Sanders, Donna Speak, Judy Allen, Mary DeGraffenreid, Jewell Frownfelter, Marilyn West, Sharon Parker, Beverly Cole, Rose Marie Wood, Brenda Hammond, Sandra Dillon, and Judy Jeffrey.

Pi Alpha Pi Initiates Four

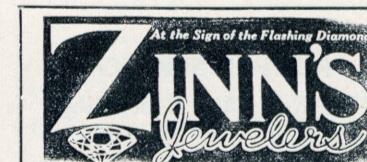

Pi Alpha Pi initiated four members Wednesday night in the little Theatre. They are Marjorie Campbell, Pat Brown, Sheila Gaynor and Leo DeSpain, who became eligible for membership in the honorary business fraternity at the end of last year.

Max Thompson was the principal speaker. Preceding the Empire District Personnel Director's address, the organization made him an honorary member.

Carol Fahrig, Lewann Barsh, and Shirley Trim were in charge of the initiation. The advisers of Pi Alpha Pi are Miss Vera Steiniger and Clarence Cowan.

30 District Prospects Work Out In Initial Roundball Drill Monday

Thirty basketball prospects turned out for the first roundball practice session Monday afternoon. Eleven will probably make up the nucleus of the squad, according to Coach Buddy Ball. At the close of last season the head mentor predicted a winning squad for '59. Now the chances look better than ever.

Bill Darst, six-foot forward, lettered four years at Everton High School, and holds last year's top scoring record in conference play.

Eugene Crockett, of Mulberry, stands six-foot four-inches. He was chosen all-star in the Kansas conference three times, and was all-state last year.

Larry Jackson, all all-state, six-foot guard from Sarcoxie, made the '58 conference all-star team.

Jerry Brewer, a guard from Springdale Arkansas, led the '58 team to triumph in the Green Forest Tourney.

Leo DeSpain, playing his second season with the Lions, lettered four years at Rocky Comfort High School.

Jimmie White lettered three years at Aurora. He was all Southwest Missouri and on the all Ozark second team.

Gridders Swamp Wentworth, 52-0

Joplin Junior College's defending Interstate Conference Champions struck three times in the first quarter then went on to rout Wentworth Military Academy, 52-0, October 2. The contest was the loop opener for both teams. It was played at Junge Stadium, the site of all Joplin home games.

Lions Smother Highland To Take First Place in I. J. C. C.

The Juco grid squad moved into first place in the Interstate Junior College Conference October 12, with a 23-14 victory over a strong Highland squad at Highland.

Fullback H. B. Davis and Left Halfback Leon Glover scored all the points for the Lions. Davis crossed the goal line three times and Glover kicked a 28-yard field goal and two extra points, as the Lions of Coach Dudley Stegge posted their second consecutive conference win and their third win in four starts.

The Joplin squad's first touch-down came midway in the first period after Jack Golden, Joplin end, blocked a punt on the 45-yard line. On the next play Fullback Davis raced 45 yards for the score. Glover booted the extra point.

With time running out in the second quarter, Glover booted a 28-yard line field goal, giving the Lions a 16-7 advantage at half time.

The Joplinites pulled away to a comfortable lead late in the third stanza, when Davis racked up his third touchdown on a 10-yard off tackle run. Glover hit his mark for the extra point, making the final tally, 23-14.
